

Study in Hebrews
Anchored in our Faith
Hebrews 13

I. Let brotherly love continue

A. The one thing that qualifies us for greatness - _____

- Love – period

B. Love is not just a character trait

- For us it is a _____

- We are commanded to love from a pure heart. – 1 Tim.1:5; 1 Pet. 1:22

II. No one is a stranger

A. There are innumerable numbers of angels in God's Kingdom

- We walk amongst them all the time

III. Remember those who are in chains

A. Those believers that are suffering

B. Those who have broken laws

IV. Marriage is a sacred _____

A. Marriage is between one man and one woman

V. Contentment

A. A sinful and adulterous generation

- He is not _____ and therefore not obligated

B. We must show them something different 1 Tim.6:3

VI. Follow the Leader

A. This is a difficult task if you don't trust the Leadership

- A leader without leadership is a danger to himself and _____

B. The outcome of our conduct

- My life is pretty much an open book

- I will answer anything I can

VII. Jesus never changes

A. The circumstances should never dictate the conduct

- Faith is asserted in _____

- Everything runs its course

B. Trust is so very important

Therefore:

VIII. Do not follow strange doctrines

A. The enemy works with _____

- The Stranger it is

B. Too numerous to talk about

- Stories sale

- The truth seems to be boring

IX. Outside the camp

A. We are those that have partaken of the blood and the body of Christ

B. The old _____ has no part in the cross

- We suffer reproach "outside the camp"

C. We are like Christ –

D. The camp was not _____

- It was Jerusalem
- It is not the world we need to leave -- it is the religious structures that choke the Word and exalt religion

X. Praises and Sacrifices

A. Continual sacrifice of praise

- There is another command that we have – praise
- The fruit of our lips – Psa. 141:3

B. Do good

- Definition of good can only be gauged by our Lord and His Word

C. Share

- The early church had all things in common
- While we are not doing that we are still obligated to meet the needs of the local body